A Message from Mt. San Jacinto College Superintendent / President

Dear Graduates,

For the past 19 years, I have had the extraordinary privilege of serving as President of Mt. San Jacinto College, and with that, the unique honor of addressing each graduating class as they reach this important milestone.

Each year, commencement has been a moment of reflection and celebration. A moment to recognize not only academic achievement, but also the perseverance, sacrifice, and determination that define the MSJC journey.

This year is especially meaningful to me, as it will be my final commencement before retirement. While this message is written for the Class of 2026, I want to share something that extends to every MSJC graduate, past, present, and future.

No matter where your path leads, remember this: your education is not just a personal accomplishment; it is a responsibility. A responsibility to contribute, to uplift others, and to leave your community better than you found it.

At MSJC, you have gained more than knowledge. You have developed resilience, adaptability, and the ability to think critically in a complex world. These are the qualities that will carry you forward, not just in your careers, but in your lives.

Many of you are the first in your families to reach this milestone. Many of you have balanced work, family, and countless challenges to be here today. That matters. Your journey matters.

As you move forward, I encourage you to stay connected to your purpose. Continue learning.

Continue growing. And whenever possible, pay forward the opportunities you have received. It has been the honor of a lifetime to serve this institution and witness our students' achievements year after year.

Congratulations, Class of 2026! And to past and current MSJC graduates, thank you for allowing me to be part of your journey.

Roger W. Schultz, PhD
Superintendent/President

A MESSAGE FROM FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENT LEADERSHIP

Congratulations, Class of 2026!

On behalf of faculty, we would like to celebrate you today and honor both your sacrifice and your success! Education is the single greatest pursuit. It has the power to change your life and that of your entire family, the broader community, and the world at large. We are honored to support you in that journey and are inspired to see what lies ahead for each of you. May you always dare to dream, may you always believe in your potential, and may you always have the courage to soar to new heights!

Holomua, Michael Arce and Anjeanette Oberg

Academic Senate Vice President and President

Hello Eagles, you made it!

Today you celebrate the culmination of many hard days, long hours, and for some a few unimaginable hurdles. Regardless of what was thrown in front of you, you persevered and you have every right to hold your head high and proclaim, "I did it!" On behalf of the Classified Professionals of Mt. San Jacinto College, congratulations on your achievement.

Edward Saucedo

Classified Senate President

Congratulations, Eagles, we made it!

It's been an honor serving as your SGA President and getting to witness everything this graduating class has accomplished. Every late night, every early morning, every moment you pushed through doubt and kept going, it all led to this. And I think we've all had that moment, lying in bed thinking, "I don't think I'm going to graduate." But despite all of that, you're here. So, let's celebrate! Whether you're stepping into a new career, continuing your education, or chasing a dream you haven't told anyone about yet, you are ready. This diploma is not just a piece of paper. It's proof of your resilience, your sacrifice, and your dedication. So be proud!

Thank you for letting me represent you. Now go show the world what an MSJC Eagle can do!

TRADITION

The formal academic regalia seen at Mt. San Jacinto College comes from hundreds of years of academic tradition, with some standardization established across American colleges and universities and some modifications unique to this institution.

Gowns and hoods date back to clothing styles in monasteries during the early European Middle Ages, when monks provided their students with similar garments to keep warm in drafty buildings. The style was carried over into secular schools and continued until it became associated with education rather than religion. In fact, because the attire was practical, it continued to be worn daily by university faculty and students until the early 1800s.

Mortarboards, commonly called “caps,” have an even more practical origin than robes and hoods. According to tradition, John Calvin, a 16th-century religious reformer, designed this headgear as protection against pigeons that roosted in the rafters of the buildings where he taught.

Today, academic clothing is worn only for scholarly ceremonies such as commencements and dedications. The hood is now an accessory and no longer serves a practical purpose.

In the 1890s, American higher education institutions formed a committee to standardize styles and colors representing individual colleges, disciplines, and degrees. These standards continue to the present day, with minor variations from college to college.

At Mt. San Jacinto College, the graduating class wears black or red gowns and mortarboards, while Registered Nursing program graduates wear white. Tassels are tri-colored in red, black, and white, the college colors. There are neither hoods nor color trim for holders of associate degrees, as these distinctions are typically reserved for advanced degrees. A gold tassel without a Phi Theta Kappa key signifies a grade point average (GPA) of 3.5 to 4.0. Graduates with a 4.0 GPA also receive a bronze medallion. Honors Enrichment Program completers wear a purple and gray honors cord, symbolizing enlightenment and wisdom. A gold tassel with a Phi Theta Kappa key and/or a gold stole indicates membership in Phi Theta Kappa, an international honors society; members must have a 3.3 GPA or higher. Some students may also wear additional cords, stoles, or insignia representing other programs, student organizations, or achievements.

Graduates wear their tassel on the right side of the mortarboard as they enter and move the tassel to the left side at the conclusion of the ceremony. This is repeated upon award of the Bachelor's degree. After that, the tassel is always worn on the left.

Faculty, staff, and administrator regalia also have special significance. The width of the colored trim on gowns, the length of the hood, and sleeve design vary by degree level. For example, the trim on a bachelor's robe is one inch wide, on a master's robe three inches wide, and on a doctoral robe five inches wide. Doctoral robes also feature three velvet stripes on each sleeve. The color of the silk lining of the hood indicates the institution that awarded the degree. Nearly 150 institutions are represented by MSJC's faculty and administration. The color of the trim represents the discipline:

Honoring

Dr. Roger W. Schultz

For 20 years, Superintendent/President Dr. Roger W. Schultz has led Mt. San Jacinto College with a steadfast commitment to student success, access, and opportunity.

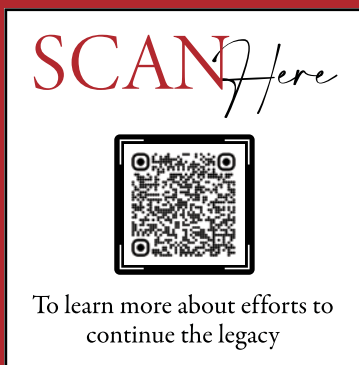

Under his leadership, MSJC has experienced significant growth-increasing enrollments, expanding programs, strengthening student support services, and improving pathways for students to achieve their educational and career goals. A central focus of his tenure has been advancing opportunities for students to pursue bachelor's and advanced degrees locally, including ongoing efforts to develop the MSJC University Center.

Dr. Schultz's vision has consistently centered on removing barriers and creating opportunities for all students to thrive. His leadership has shaped not only the institution but also the lives of countless students, families, and community members.

As he prepares to retire in June 2026, we extend our deepest gratitude for his years of service, dedication, and impact.

In recognition of his legacy, the MSJC Foundation has established a Legacy Fund for President Schultz, supporting continued student success and expanded access to higher education.
